	APPROSERSON LEGISLATION LEGISLATION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO	63
COUNTRY	East Germany SECURITY INFORMATION REPORT NO.
TOPIC	Military Information from Doeberitz	Kilono - walka kilono ing mwa
1X EVALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED	25X1
1C DATE OF CONTE
DATE OBTAINED
REFERENCES
REMARKS	THE THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER	RESERVE ASSETT ASS
lante an la l'appendi companient e p ^u une present en _e e commence per la responsable
1X		Whey commiss a said
AND AND STREET, MINISTERS OF THE AREA OF THE BANKS AND		dicer "www.co.co.co
434
1X
l.	On 26 and 27 June 1953, firing with infantry weapons was held at Hasenheidenberg. in the Doeberitz training area. A sentry was picked
1C	Between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. on 29 June, two
1C	T-43 tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. A sentry at the road block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower	25X1
1C 1X	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz,	25X1
	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops wearing black- bordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar	25X1
1X 2.	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops wearing black- bordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar Oxygen Plant in Staaken, to Frankfurt/Oder, on 26 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which,	25X1 25X1
1X 2. 1C	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away	25X1 25X1
1X 2. 1C	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Deberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops wearing black- bordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar Oxygen Plant in Staaken, to Frankfurt/Oder, on 26 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which,	25X1 25X1
1X 2. 1C	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops nearing black- bordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar Oxygen Plant in Stacken, to Stacken to Frankfurt/Oder, on 25 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
1X 2. 1C	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops nearing black- bordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar Oxygen Plant in Stacken, to Stacken to Frankfurt/Oder, on 25 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only	25X1 25X1
1X 2. 1C	block was picked up 120-mm mortars went from Buchower Weg toward Dallgow. Beginning 30 June, the training area again was put off limits, allegedly because a boy had been killed during a firing practice. Noncompliance rendered the offender subject to severe punishment. At 8 a.m. on 1 July, six JS-2 tanks passed through Doeberitz, coming from the direction of Altes Lager and proceeding toward Buchower Weg. At 7 p.m., six JS-2 tanks were seen driving vice versa. They were followed by a truck towing a 120-mm mortar. At 7 a.m. on 2 July, two JS- tanks practiced firing at Hasenheidenberg. The Hasenheidenberg cantonment was occupied as previously. Military shipments listed at the Dallgow railroad station between 24 June and 2 July included: 3 boxcars with foodstuff from Jueterbog-Altes Lager, shipped away with escorting troops nearing black- bordered blue epaulets; on 24 June; 1 boxcar Oxygen Plant in Stacken, to Stacken to Frankfurt/Oder, on 25 June; and loading of 2 boxcars, 12 converted boxcars and 46 flatcars which, with an undetermined cargo, went to Forst Zinna, on 2 July. Comment. A previous information by the same source indicated that training activity was resumed at the Doeberitz troop training grounds on 24 June. According to this report, training was continued until 2 July. The training probably involved only	25X1 25X1

SECRET	*
	25X1A
- 2 LM
25X1A 2. Comment. Possibly a shipment of artillery units of t	the 1st Mecz
Div which transferred to Jueterbog for firing practice.	25X1C
25X1C	25X1C

SECRET